I am Dr.K.S.Krishnamurthy BSc, MBBS, MRCP(UK), an Internal Medicine Specialist living in Petersburg, VA. After graduating from BMC, I worked in ESI hospital, Bangalore. I left India in 1964 for postgraduate training both in USA and England. I practised in Streator, Illinois and in 1978 moved to Petersburg, VA and set up my private practice. During my career, my patients adored me as a "good and kind" doctor and my colleagues complimented me as an "excellent clinician" ( thanks to late Dr. Govind Shetty ). Now I am retired and enjoying my life to the fullest extent. I thank God, I am doing well, after being diagnosed and treated for Naso-pharyngeal carcinoma in 1999.

I married an English girl in 1968, but unfortunately it ended up in a divorce in 1987. I am proud and happy that I raised my children as a single dad.

We have two sons, Kiran and Vikram and a daughter, Angela.

Kiran, a journalist for Richmond Times, is married to Samantha and they have a son, Miles and a daughter, Kira.

Vikram, works for Delaware Centre for Horticulture and will pursue his Master's degree at the University of Delaware "CEEP" (Centre for Energy and Environmental Policy). He is married to Kate, who is the Communications Director/Press Secretary for the Governor of Delaware. They have a son, Arun.

Angela, the 'Apple of my Eye', was a Kindergarten teacher and now a home-maker, is married to James, who manges one of three funeral homes of his dad. They have a daughter, Kenley and a son, James.
